We are working with OPP on this and will assist as and when required.

Thx Commissioner. Spoke with Mayor Dilkins, who says that Chief Mizuno is clarifying the read-out below, and says that the request for additional reinforcements is still alive. My understanding is that 25-50 OPP are en route , along with public order units.

Subject: Windsor Police Request For Assistance

Commissioner Lucki:

Chief Pam Mizuno and I had an opportunity to discuss the attached correspondence. Currently, Windsor Police does not require the deployment of additional police officers from the OPP or the RCMP.

Chief Mizuno's team is examining what resources they will require and when they will require them. Once the need for any additional resources has been identified, Windsor Police will forward the OPP a request for assistance, and the OPP will assist with providing and/or coordinating the available resources to support the operations of Windsor Police.

Your truly,
Tom
